Allegro.

First system of musical notation, consisting of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#). The music features a melodic line in the treble clef and a supporting bass line in the bass clef.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same grand staff structure and key signature as the first system.

Third system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same grand staff structure and key signature as the first system.

Fourth system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same grand staff structure and key signature as the first system.

Fifth system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same grand staff structure and key signature as the first system.

Sixth system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same grand staff structure and key signature as the first system.

First system of musical notation, consisting of a treble and bass staff. The key signature has three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The treble staff features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the bass staff provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. The treble staff has a more active melodic line with slurs and ties, and the bass staff continues with a consistent eighth-note accompaniment.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff shows a complex melodic pattern with many slurs and ties. The bass staff has a more sparse accompaniment with some rests.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff continues with its intricate melodic line. The bass staff has a more active accompaniment with eighth notes and some rests.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble staff features a melodic line with many slurs and ties. The bass staff continues with a steady eighth-note accompaniment.

Sixth system of musical notation, the final system on the page. It includes the tempo marking Adagio. above the treble staff. The treble staff has a melodic line with a fermata over the final note. The bass staff concludes with a series of chords and a final cadence.

The first system consists of four vocal staves and a piano accompaniment. The vocal parts are in treble clef with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#). The piano accompaniment is in grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with the same key signature. The lyrics are: "ed, it can - not be mov - ed." repeated on each vocal line.

The second system shows the piano accompaniment for the second system of music. It continues the grand staff from the first system, with the right hand playing a melodic line and the left hand providing harmonic support.

The third system shows the piano accompaniment for the third system of music. The right hand features a more active, rhythmic melody, while the left hand continues with a steady accompaniment.

The fourth system shows the piano accompaniment for the fourth system of music. The right hand has a melodic line with some grace notes, and the left hand has a simple accompaniment.

The fifth system shows the piano accompaniment for the fifth system of music. The right hand has a melodic line with some grace notes, and the left hand has a simple accompaniment.

joice in the Lord ye righteous,
- ness, joy - ful glad-ness, for such as are true heart

joice in the Lord ye righteous,
- joice in the Lord ye righteous,

The first system consists of three vocal staves and a piano accompaniment. The vocal parts enter with the lyrics 'joice in the Lord ye righteous,'. The piano accompaniment provides a rhythmic and harmonic foundation with a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more active bass line in the left hand.

ed, and joy - ful glad

The second system continues the vocal lines. The lyrics 'ed, and joy - ful glad' are placed under the notes. The piano accompaniment continues with similar rhythmic patterns, maintaining the harmonic structure.

- ness, and joy - ful glad-ness, for such as are true

The third system concludes the vocal phrase with the lyrics '- ness, and joy - ful glad-ness, for such as are true'. The piano accompaniment features a more complex texture with sixteenth-note runs in the right hand and sustained chords in the left hand.
