WILL S. HAYS'S BEAUTIFUL BALLADS

Within Twelve Months.

It is with pleasure we offer the following new and beautiful ballads by this talented young author:

You've been a Friend to me.....	40 cts.
Mary, Oh! come back to me.....	40 "
Oh! let me Kiss the Baby.....	50 "
Katy McFarren.....	40 "

These, like all of "Hays's" songs, have finely illustrated titles. The great secret of Mr. Hays's success as a song writer may be attributed to the blending of his words with his music. Writing both the words and music himself, he has been able to wed the two together in such a way that his ballads, like "Foster's," appeal at once to the heart.

A musical critic, in speaking of his songs, says: "We are in receipt of Will S. Hays's latest song, and, after giving it a careful examination, must declare it his best, that is, until he writes another; for each succeeding song seems better than his best. In fact, the cloak of the late immortal Stephen C. Foster seems to have fallen on his shoulders. We wish him much success."

Among his most popular songs we would mention the following:

We parted by the River Side, piano.....	40c.	guitar.....	35c.
Take me back Home,.....	40c.	".....	35c.
Write me a Letter from Home,.....	40c.	".....	35c.
Mary's waiting at the Window,.....	40c.	".....	35c.
Nora O'Neal,.....	40c.	".....	35c.
Shamus O'Brien, (answer to Nora O'Neal,).....	40c.	".....	35c.
Little Sam,.....	40c.	".....	35c.

These may also be had as piano pieces by Mack, and with variations by Paoler and Grobo.
