The image shows a musical score for the song "Will you remember me." It consists of five systems of staves. The first two systems are vocal lines with lyrics. The third system is a piano accompaniment. The fourth and fifth systems are piano accompaniment for the second system. The score is written in a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). The piano part features a prominent bass line with chords and a treble line with chords and melodic fragments. The lyrics are: "I but knew, sweet one that you, Would still re-mem-ber me." The piano part includes a dynamic marking of pp (pianissimo) in the fourth system.

I but knew, sweet one that you, Would still re-mem-ber me.

I but knew, sweet one that you, Would still re-mem-ber me.

I never shall forget the night,
 You wished me "pleasant dreams"
 The moon looked smiling from the skies,
 On valleys, hills and streams.
 But ere we part, Oh! take my heart,
 For 'twill be true to thee,
 And while away, oh! night and day,
 Will you remember me.
