par

CHARLES MAYER.

Op. 213.

Berlin, chez N. Simrock.

Allegretto, con espressione.

il Canto marcato.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of four systems of music. Each system has a treble and bass clef staff. The time signature is 6/8. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic and includes a péd marking. The second system features a dim: marking. The third system includes a f marking. The fourth system begins with the instruction calando. and includes a pp marking. The score contains various musical notations including slurs, accents, and asterisks.

pp leggiero. ff

This system contains two staves of music. The upper staff begins with a piano (pp) and leggiero. marking. The lower staff features a ff marking. Both staves include fingerings (1-5) and trill ornaments marked with asterisks.

poco diminuendo ff

This system continues the piece with two staves. The upper staff includes a poco diminuendo instruction. The lower staff features a ff marking. Fingerings and trill ornaments are present throughout.

poco diminuendo

This system shows the continuation of the poco diminuendo instruction across two staves. The music maintains its melodic and harmonic structure with trill ornaments.

f appassionata

This system features a f (forte) and appassionata marking. The upper staff has a ff marking. The music is characterized by a more intense and expressive style, with trill ornaments.

f appassionata

This final system on the page continues the f and appassionata markings. It concludes the piece with a strong, expressive sound, featuring trill ornaments.

Musical score system 1, featuring piano accompaniment. The right hand plays chords and arpeggiated figures, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The tempo and dynamics are marked poco più diminuendo.

Musical score system 5, concluding the piano accompaniment. The right hand features more complex arpeggiated patterns. The tempo and dynamics are marked poco a poco diminuendo.

First system of musical notation. It consists of a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The music features a melodic line in the treble and a bass line in the bass. Dynamics include pp (pianissimo) and diminuendo. There are several asterisks (*) marking specific notes or chords. The system is divided into three measures.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It maintains the same grand staff structure. The melodic line continues with various rhythmic patterns and articulations. Dynamics include pp and diminuendo. Asterisks (*) are used to mark specific points in the music. The system is divided into three measures.

Third system of musical notation. The notation continues with a focus on the melodic line in the treble. Dynamics include pp and diminuendo. Asterisks (*) mark specific notes. The system is divided into three measures.

Fourth system of musical notation. The piece continues with similar melodic and bass line patterns. Dynamics include pp and diminuendo. Asterisks (*) mark specific notes. The system is divided into three measures.

Fifth and final system of musical notation on the page. It concludes the piece with a morendo ritenuto (fading and held back) instruction. The notation includes a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. Dynamics include pp. Asterisks (*) mark specific notes. The system is divided into three measures.
