First system of musical notation, featuring treble and bass staves. The treble staff contains complex chordal textures with various intervals and some triplet markings. The bass staff provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff continues with intricate chordal patterns, including some sixteenth-note runs. The bass staff features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes and chords.

Third system of musical notation. Similar to the previous systems, it features dense chordal textures in the treble and a more rhythmic accompaniment in the bass.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff shows significant fingerings with numbers 1-5 above notes. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment pattern.

Fifth system of musical notation. The piece concludes with a double bar line. The treble staff has many fingerings marked. The bass staff includes the instruction "dim." (diminuendo) and "Ped. pp" (pedalissimo) near the end of the piece.
