

29.

Barcarolle (1895)

Moderato.

VOICE.

PIANO.

p p con Pedale.

5

I

10

wait for thee, sweet love, to - night, My boat is at thy stair; — The 14

cresc.

moon is full, the sea is bright, And all the world is fair. — Come cresc.

18

cresc.

down and I — will sing to thee, To charm a way all fear; — Of cresc.

22

love a lone my song shall be, For thee a lone to hear! —

26

p

Come!

Then

rit.

30 quasi a tempo poco rit. e dolce

float, my boat, — A - cross the dim la - goon; — The night is molto legato p quasi a tempo col canto

35 a tempo cresc.

bright, — And morn - ing comes too soon, — Too soon the moon — Will

a tempo cresc.

40

hide a - way her light; — Come down and crown — With love the hours of 45

night! — With love!

a tempo

50

54

The night a mil . lion stars may know, That 58

trem . ble in the skies; — But faint and dim their light shall grow, When

62

fair the moon doth rise! — Thou art my love, my life, sweet heart, Come 66 cresc.

down and on me shine; — Let all the stars of Heavende-part I

70

care not, thou art mine! — Comel —

75 p quasi a tempo

Then float, my boat, — A - cross the dim la - goon; — The

quasi a tempo

rit. p molto legato

80 poco rit. e dolce a tempo cresc.

night is bright, — And morning comes too soon; — Too soon the

col canto a tempo cresc

85

moon — Will hide a way her light; — Come down and * crown — With 90

love the hours of night! — With love! —

95

p — The night is bright, — sempre dim. Come!

100

— The night is bright, — pp Oppure. come!