

22.

Let Love Awake (1892)

MODERATO.

p

5

p

legato

Let love a_wake! whilst youth is in its spring.... For love and youth by ro_asy links are bound;... Let not the years their speedy journey wing. Ere thou and I our hearts' de_sire have found: ... Love calls thee

8

11

14 Cres:
 now! Wilt thou not answer make? . . . Let love a . . . wake! Let love a . . .

17 rit:
 . . . wake! Let love a . . . wake!

col canto. a tempo.

20 pp
 Let love a . . .

pp armonioso.

24
 . . . wake! whilst yet our lives are glad, . . . Ere fal ling tears have left their trace be . .

hind: The brightest days, with na_ture sweet_est clad, Must end in

30 Cres: -
rain, and gloom and moan_ing wind: 'Tis sum_mer

Cres: -

32
now, let us our glad_ness take! Let love a_ _wake! Let love a_ _

35 rit:
wake! Let love a _wake!

col canto. a tempo.

38

Let

42

love a_wake! Ere win - t'ry days draw nigh, For 44

bi - - ting blast can chill the warm - est heart, Let

46

love awake ere sum_mer flowers die, Whilst thou and I, . . . with 49

rit

a tempo.

sad_ness have no part: Oh! rest my heart, . . . oh rest my

col canto

a tempo.

52

Cres: sempre.

heart on thine, or it will break! . . Let love a_ _wake! Oh! rest my Cres: sempre.

55

ten:

heart! Let love a_ _wake! Let love a wake!

col canto.

f

58

Diminuendo.

Diminuendo.

pp